

Concord.

A Successful Entertainment.

The entertainment given by the Village Improvement Society at the town hall Friday evening drew a full house and brought $21.90 for proceeds. The comedy "Per Telephone" was presented in a very satisfactory manner. The parts were well sustained by Miss Marie Harvey, Mrs. Clarence Cutting, Mrs. Chauncey Milmore, Dr. Addison Preston and Everett Richards, all of whom did some very clever acting. The situations were often very ridiculous, but they proved equal to the occasion every time. Following this comedy a "Mother Goose Party" was given, the rhymes being well read by Miss Genevieve Sargent, while they were illustrated by many of the young people in costume to suit the occasion. Following this, refreshments were served and dancing and marching enjoyed until midnight.

BRADFORD.

Man's Money Was Buried.

About three months ago Edward McDuffy, of Bradford, who had decided his farm to his children, reserving a life lease to himself, sold lumber on a woodlot on the farm to L. A. Merrill, of Bradford, who proceeded to cut the lumber. He was promptly stopped by an injunction issued at the instigation of Mr. McDuffy's children, whereupon Mr. Merrill demanded back his money, some $800, from Mr. McDuffy. The latter refused to give it up, and was placed in jail. Mr. McDuffy finally sent for Mr. Merrill and proposed to pay back the money and all expenses if Merrill would permit his release and drop the suit, stating, however, that his money was buried in a place in Bradford, known only to himself, and that he would have to be taken there before he could liquidate. To this Merrill assented and together they went to Bradford where McDuffy unearthed $1,500 and purchased his liberty.

Corn Syrup is the Correct Name.

An important question in the administration of the pure food law was settled at Washington Friday in a decision made public by Secretaries Wilson, Courtney and Straus. It bears upon the labelling of syrup. The decision follows: "We have given careful consideration to the labelling of the thick viscous syrup obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of the starch of corn and composed essentially of dextrose, maltose and extrins. In our opinion it is lawful to label this syrup as 'corn syrup,' and if to the corn syrup there is added a small percentage of refined sugar the mixture, in our judgment, is not misbranded if labelled 'corn syrup with cane flavor.'"
